

Thank you for your interest in Canastas for College Anaheim! In many cultures around the world and through time, it has been customary to give baskets (canastas) with gifts as a gesture of good will and good fortune. In that spirit, Canastas for College Anaheim coordinates donations to make $200 gift baskets for college-bound high school seniors, which are presented to them during their last week of school. The goal of this community project is to highlight the many accomplishments of Anaheim youth, support them as they transition to college, and foster a sense of community pride.
